ALL BIG MARKETS IN THE DISTRICT CLOSED TUESDAY

Carlisle, Winchester, Frankfort and Lexington Markets Close After Only a Few Bids Are Made.

Carlisle, Ky., Jan. 5.—Growers peremptorily stopped the sale of tobacco at the People's house after one load had been sold at prices ranging from fifty cents to twenty dollars per hundred Tuesday.

Threats were made against the buyers and knives were drawn, but no attack was made and there was no act of violence.

A number of impassioned speeches were made from tobacco piles, and the temper of the crowd was indicative of trouble.

It was claimed that leaf which sold for five cents brought from five to seven times as much last season.

There was no conference preceding the close, the attitude of the crowd making suspension by general consent unavoidable.

A great number of growers left in automobiles for Paris, and it was alleged that they declared their purpose to be to stop sales there.

There were seven buyers on this market, including the Big Four.

Winchester, Ky., Jan. 5.—Tobacco sales were suspended here Tuesday after a single crop had been actioned and the closing bids rejected. The top grade of the crop brought 29 cents, and the entire bad end was bid in at $1.00.

Housewives and growers immediately held a conference, and it was jointly agreed to stop the sales. The question of whether to attempt another sale Wednesday was left open, to be determined later.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 5.—Resolutions demanding that warehouses of the whole state be closed until growers of tobacco can per feet an organization were adopted at a meeting of more than one thousand farmers who gathered in the shadows of the historic old Capitol here shortly after the market had opened and closed Tuesday. Numerous speeches were made and a dithere were evidences of intense feeling, but no threats of violence were heard.

Only a few loads of tobacco were sold at the opening before dissatisfaction caused such confusion that the sale was suspended by common consent, the crowd following leaders who proposed the mass meeting. The opening prices were less than half of those prevailing last year and speakers declared that to sell tobacco at such figures meant ruin.

The Week of Prayer service for this evening will be at the First Presbyterian church with Mr. W. W. Ball as leader. The time is 7:15. HOUSE JOINS SENATE IN OVERRULING PRESIDENT

House Overrides President's Veto of War Loan Bill By Vote of 250 to 64.

Washington, Jan. 5.—The resolution reviewing the War Finance Corporation became law Tuesday with its re adoption by the House over President Wilson's veto. The Senate overrode the veto Monday.

The vote in the House was 250 to 64 with three voting present, or 37 more than the required two-thirds majority.

The vote was taken without debate after Representative Mondell, Republican leader, had stated that since all members realized that the President had raised no new question, it seemed wise to proceed to vote without discussion.

Officials of the War Finance Corporation said today the corporation would be revived immediately, but that necessarily some time must elapse before the actual making of new loans would begin. Some of them thought the time might be two months.

Funds for making the loans must be raised by a bond issue, it was stated, and other preliminary matters must be cleaned up. While the corporation has a book balance with the Treasury of about $375,000,000, officials said the use of this money for loan purposes would necessitate the issuance of Treasury certificates of indebtedness and that an issue of corporation bonds probably would be decided upon instead.

The call for the meeting was signed by delegates elected by farmers of Clark, Bath and Montgomery counties at mass meetings in the county seats after the close of the markets in those counties Tuesday morning. The delegates came to Lexington Tuesday afternoon and made arrangements for the convention, and here they learned that sales had been suspended in nearly every county in the entire Burley belt where important sales are held.

Delegates to the gathering will be elected at county mass meetings in counties throughout the state, in which Burley is grown, Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

New York Letter

New York. — Some men have no romance in their souls at all. William Wray, motorcycle racer of Brooklyn, gave his fiancée a $900 diamond ring to seal their troth. Now comes the fiancée, Miss Belle Hill, of Manhattan, an declares that he stole it back. And the judge believed her to the extent of holding the loving suitor on a charge of grand larceny. It wasn't only that it wasn't the right thing for a fiancée to do at any time, but Wray even violated the laws of hospitality in committing the theft, says Miss Hill. She was washing her hair in his apartment after an automobile ride which had got it all dusty, an dhad removed her ring to keep the soap from getting into it. Wray took it. And not only was it the symbol of her romance, but she had given $200 toward the purchase of it!

It's a calloused age anyhow so far as sentiment is concerned, one sometimes believes, especially in Brooklyn. Just when the marriage license clerk there was getting all ready to give out the annual Christmas season story about "Unprecedented rush of business for Cupid due to influence of mistletoe in the shop windows" or something of that sort, his whole spirit was upset by having two girls and one man come back during one day to return their marriage licenses. Changed minds, that was all. They weren't willing to exchange the licenses for others either. They insisted upon having their money back.

This might have happened anywhere else as well as in New York, of course; unless maybe people really are more scapable here. But the other day I was walking along Broadway up in Washington Heights, when I met a sweet looking woman pushing a baby in a go-cart and with a little boy hanging to her other hand. She stopped right in front of me, and spoke: "What would you do," she asked with all the earnestness of her soul, "if you had a little boy five years old who would swear and use the most awful language?" Well, even the things that I work at I don't do well enough to give anyone else advice on them, and when it comes to the training of a five-year-old boy! So I just looked appalled. "He never hears such language at home," she hurried on, "and we try to watch his playmates. But I don't know what to do." I had to express my own helplessness and my sympathy. She sighed and was going on when the five-year-old boy in question smiled sweetly at me and exclaimed, "Anyway, I'm going to get a dandy yelocipede for Christmas!" It seemed more than ever a difficult problem.

One of the real hits of the musical comedy year is "Sally," just produced by Ziegfeld, and pretty unanimously acclaimed as eclipsing his "Follies." Marilyn Miller, who has firmly established herself in this to be a singer and even something of an actress, and Leon Errol is as good as ever, maybe better. He and Miss Miller carry off the laurels with their dancing but there is more than that to the show. For one thing, it has a plot. Guy Bolton wrote it, so the book is clever; and the music is good, both that by Jerome Kern and that by Victor Herbert.

Royalty probably never does actually get by with a real "incog" but it's hard not even to have any pretense of it when it tries to. The recent arrival here of Prince Alfonso is an example of the difficulty. No sooner had his ship docked and the reporters scrambled aboard than the following report was telephoned to his newspaper by one reporter: "Prince Alfonso, cousin of the King of Spain, arrived here incognito today. While in New York he will stop at the Hotel Vanderbilt, where he hopes to continue his incognito."

There is a bookseller in New York who reads the books he sells. Does it so that he can know what he's about when his customers ask him to recommend things. Then he put his recommendation on record. On many of the books you look at in his shop, you will find strips of paper, printed with the following words, "Frank Shay recommends this book. It is sold with a guarantee that if it does not measure up to our statements we will exchange it for another book or refund the purchase price."

One New York City bandit has abandoned melodrama for humor. No longer does he bring out the trusty old gun and back his victim against a wall in a dark street. He just waits for him—or her—outside a revolving door, in a crowded block. As the victim is entering the swirl of the door, dip goes the bandit's hand and away goes the victim's watch or purse, or whatever else he has to attract one's fancy. The robbed one can't stop or go back. The door is being pushed by hurried and impatient people. He has to go all the way around the circle of it to get to the sidewalk—and by that time there is no thief in sight.

ROAD PROBLEM IN FIGURES IS RAISING NINETY MILLION.

Louisville — Addressing the Board of Trade, Governor Morrow said: "Every one wants good roads just as they want to go to Heaven. The problem of constructing the 3,000 miles of permanent roads provided for under the law is simply the problem of raising ninety-million dollars. "Suggestion," he said, should be germane to the financial side.

THOUSAND NEW KENTUCKY CORPORATIONS IN YEAR.

Frankfort — Nine hundred and nine-eighth new corporations were formed and incorporated in Kentucky up to December 30 during the year 1920, according to figures made public by Secretary of State Fred A. Vaughn. The total number of charters issued by the state since the constitution of 1890-91 went into effect, according to the filed of the secretary is 18,554.

YOUNG DAUGHTER GONE, WANTS HELP OF THE LAW.

Vanceburg — Mrs. A. Yates, of Slate came here to invoke the aid of the law in recovering her 14-year-old daughter. She claimed that Daniel Boone Warrington had "stolen" the girl, but officials advised her that the law against theft would not apply to elopements in general.

ENTERING MINISTERS' HOMES, SPECIALTY, CHARGE.

Louisville. — John Loeser, 17, was arrested on the charge of having broken into the homes of the Rev. W. C. Dunlap and Rev. P. S. Wiggeman while they were in their pulpits. Police say he is suspected also of having robbed the home of the Rev. R. J. Pirkey during the church hour.

TWO BOYS KILLED IN LOUISVILLE ACCIDENTS.

Louisville — Marvin Johns, 14, son of Rector Johns, died from injuries sustained when he fell from a ferris wheel at Highland park. He attempted to leap from one car to another. James Dowdell, Jr., 6, was killed by an automobile driven by Cronin Pike, 24.

BERTILLON MEASUREMENTS AWAIT IDENTIFICATION.

Somerset. — The body of the unknown man found beside the railroad here is being held unburied pending receipt of bertillon measurements from the Frankfort reformatory which are expected to identify him as Sam Crabtree, a convict who escaped in September.

MUCH INDUSTRIAL ACTIVITY IN SOUTH IS REPORTED

Activity Throughout South is Noted in Review of Conditions by the Manufacturers Record.

Baltimore, Md. — Pronounced activity throughout the South is noted in industrial, municipal and general building developments in the weekly summary of industrial progress published by the Manufacturers Record. Plans have been announced for rebuilding immediately a shipbuilding plant at New Orleans, La., recently destroyed by fire at a loss of $1,000,000. Port Arthur, Texas, has voted $2,000,000 in bonds for development and improvement of the city's water supply. Large extensions to oil-pile-line facilities will be made in Louisiana by Eastern oil interests following plans now being made. One of the most modern cotton mills in the country has begun operation at San Antonio, Texas. A $10,000,000 export corporation has been organized to supplement the recently organized $6,000,000 International Banking Co.

Good-roads work is progressing in a number of states at a rapid rate. In many parts of the South plants are being formulated for programs to be launched within the next few months that will result in the expenditure of millions of dollars and give employment to thousands of men. Those states which have yet to draft final road bills have committees at work now so that the bills may be introduced at the next meeting of the respective Legislatures. Trunk-line systems connecting all the counties of the separate state and providing for at least one main road north and south and another east and west are included in practically all of the programs. State convicts will be used in several of the states. The roads are being financed through county, state and Federal aid, and through direct

WEAK; RUN-DOWN

Carolina Lady Got So She Could Just Drag.—"Cardui Built Me Up," She Declares.

Kernersville, N. C. — In an interesting statement regarding Cardui, the Woman's Tonic, Mrs. Wesley Mabe, of near here, recently said: "I have known Cardui for years, but never knew its worth until a year or so ago. I was in a weakened, run-down condition. I became draggy—didn't eat or sleep to do any good; couldn't do anything without a great effort. I tried different remedies and medicines, yet I continued to drag. "I decided to give Cardui a trial, and found it was just what I really needed. It made me feel much stronger soon after I began to use it. I began to eat more, and the nervous, weak feeling began to leave. Soon I was sleeping good. "Cardui built me up as no other tonic ever did. "I used Cardui with one daughter who was puny, felt bad and tired out all the time. It brought her right out, and soon she was as well as a girl could be. We think there is nothing like Cardui." Do not allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. You may find it just what you really need. For more than 40 years it has been used by thousands and thousands, and found just as Mrs. Mabe describes. At your druggist's. NC-142 taxes. The demand for lumber and other building materials is steadily improving, although orders in large volume are being withheld. Inquiries are more numerous than for many months and manufacturers look for almost complete revival shortly after the first of the year, predicting that if buying is continued steadily for two weeks in succession the prices will start upward and buying will be resumed in increasing volume.

Some cotton mills that have closed in most part until after the first of the year will resume operations with renewed vigor. It is generally believed that buying will be strong after the new year, and that the mills that have been running part time may resume operation at full time.

Among the many miscellaneous enterprises announced during the week were the following: A $1,000,000 theater will be erected in Dallas, Texas; plans have been announced of a similar structure at Pensacola, Fla., to cost $250,000; the contract was awarded for the erection of a high school building at Dallas, Texas, to cost $840,000; the contract was also awarded for the construction of a six-story hospital at Kansas City at a cost of $500,000; plans are being prepared for a seven-story office and bank building at Okmulgee, Okla., which will cost $450,000; plans are being prepared for a $1,000,000 clubhouse at Dallas, and a $250,000 church building at Austin, Texas; at Richmond, Va., it is planned to erect a $2,000,000 war memorial.

Mining activities continue good. At Roanoke, Va., a coal company has been organized with a capital of $1,500,000. At Christiansburg, Va., a mining company has been incorporated with a capital of $600,000, while at Lynchburg a coal company has been formed with a capital of $500,000. A fuel company has been organized in Limestone county, Texas, for development of lignite fields with a capital of $2,000,000.

A large sheet-glass plant will be erected at Charleston, W. Va., following the company's action in increasing its capital from $4,000,000 to $10,000,000. In El Paso, Texas, a newly organized company with a capital of $500,000 will manufacture rope from fiber and the like. The capital of a hydro-electric company in Higden, Ark., has been increased from $50,000 to $3,000,000 to permit extensions in the spring.

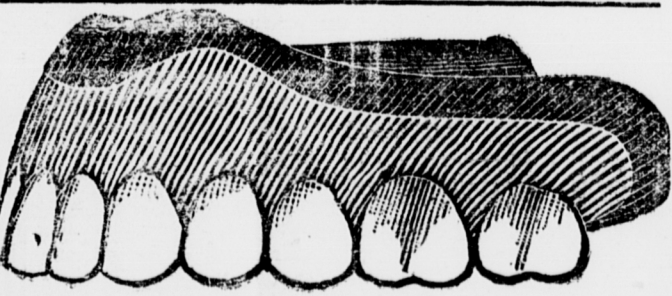

ELLISON SAYS HE'D CHOOSE GRAVE RATHER THAN PEN.

Madisonville. — No efforts will be made to secure a stay of execution in the case of Lee Ellison, condemned to die January 31 for the murder of Sheriff R. S. Hunter. Waiving the right of appeal was part of the agreement which permitted his speedy trial. He told authorities that he'd rather die than go to the penitentiary, where he had spent two terms. There was grim humor in his farewell message to his wife, in all here on a moonshining charge: "Tell her I'm safe and well."

NEVER AGAIN.

Michael A. Sweeney, former Senator, known all over Indiana and recently defeated for the office of joint Representative for the district composed of Dubois and Orange counties, has filed his verified expense account with the clerk of the Dubois Circuit Court, in which he showed that he expended $61.10 in making his campaign. Under the heading "Promise Made" he said:

"To my wife, never to be a darn fool and run for any other office. Amen."

Mr. Sweeney made the most aggressive campaign of any candidate in this district, and while he carried Dubois county by more than 1,000 votes, he was defeated by the overwhelming Republican majority of Orange county.—Indianapolis News.

The prisoner was taken following an extensive man hunt. The little girl is in a serious condition.

The Kocher girl disappeared while on the way to school. After a long search the body was found in a clump of bushes. She had been strangled to death.
